

The Regional Information Sharing Systems is proud to announce that this year marks the 20th anniversary of RISSNET. RISSNET provides access to millions of investigative and intelligence records, connects systems from all levels of government, and helps law enforcement officers securely communicate and connect across jurisdictions. Hundreds of resources rely on the RISSNET infrastructure to share information. More than 44 million records are available through these and other RISSNET resources.

Read the full article in the Fall 2016 RISS Insider.